

WIKKI PRAYERS

Instructions:

You will need: Wikki Sticks (available from toy stores and bookshops)

Have one person in the group read Luke 8:22—25.

“One day he got into a boat with his disciples, and he said to them, “Let us go across to the other side of the lake.” So they put out, and while they were sailing he fell asleep. A windstorm swept down on the lake, and the boat was filling with water, and they were in danger. They went to him and woke him up, shouting, “Master, Master, we are perishing!” And he woke up and rebuked the wind and the raging waves; they ceased, and there was a calm. He said to them, “Where is your faith?” They were afraid and amazed, and said to one another, “Who then is this, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him?”

- Hand out the wikki sticks.
- Together discuss: What do you think is amazing about this story?
- On your own: Choose one or more words that sum up how they feel about Jesus in this story.
- Silently create this word out of wikki sticks. Stick it to the space, and as you do talk to God about your word and why you chose it.
